PRESS RELEASE

ESP Project - 'anarchic curves' - 29.04.22

The ESP Project release their sixth studio album, 'anarchic curves' on 29th April 2022. Featuring the musical compositions of Tony Lowe, the concept, poetic lyrics and vocals of Peter Coyle, this album is a mesmerising addition to a highly reviewed body of work. Tony and Peter take us yet again into a vivid and imaginative world with songs that move from melodic and symphonic to intense prog rock, creating an unforgettable offering to the ESP Project catalogue. The album features Tony Lowe on guitar-keyboards, Peter Coyle on vocals, Pete Clark on bass, Dave Etheridge on drums, and Peter Coyle & Cheryl Stringall on additional keyboards. The band tours with Landmarq Summer of 2022.

Since 2016, the five ESP Project albums have received a combination of over 50 4-4.5/5-star reviews from the Music Press and several top 10 albums of the year awards. All albums are produced by Tony Lowe and released on the Sunn Creative label. 'anarchic curves' is available on Bandcamp as a CD/digital download from 29th April, and the usual outlets. The CD comes as a Limited-Edition digipak with a 12-page lyric booklet with album art and graphics by Cheryl Stringall.

BACKGROUND: Tony Lowe's ESP Project began in 2015/16 with 'Invisible Din' featuring numerous guests including Mark Brzezicki, David Cross, David Jackson, and John Young; followed in 2018 by '22 Layers of Sunlight', with vocals, concept and lyrics from ex-Lotus Eaters, Peter Coyle, and three additional albums - 'three', 'The Rising' & 'phenomena' with lyrics/vocals by Damien Child. On '22 Layers of Sunlight' (2018) with Peter's unique lyrics and vocal style alongside Tony's music, they created something strong and different with a new and unheard synthesis of music, words, and production. They return to their creative collaboration on 'anarchic curves', a stunning, timely addition to the ESP musical catalogue.
